ANNOTATION

Naval Weapons Systems Maintenance Programme And Organisation Of Repair Works - 30 h., facultative discipline	ECTS credits: 2

Naval Tactics Department

Learning objectives:

1. The students will BE FAMILIAR WITH:

- the essential requirements of the planning, organization and reporting procedures related to the maintenance of naval weapon systems.

- the main documents regulating the maintenance of naval weapons.

- the organization of the different type of repair works, maintenance, storage and reporting fixed tangible assets.

2. The students will BE ABLE TO:

- complete the basic documents related to planning, conducting and recording maintenance and storage of materiel on board.

Assessment System: The course ends with a continuous assessment grade, calculated as the mean average from the grades obtained from the seminars at the end of each topic covered in the ninth semester.

Contents:

No.	Subject areas (modules)	Lectures	Seminars
1.	Basic terms, definitions and specific features of the accounting of naval weapons systems, live ammunition, simulation ammunition and pyrotechnics.	16	4
2.	Planning, organization and reporting procedures related to the maintenance of naval weapon systems.	8	2
	Total:	24	6