

ANNOTATION

Organization Of The Shipboard Service, Technical Safety And Logistics – Navigation – 45 hours, mandatory – Naval communications Officers and Engineers for the Navy – 60 hours, mandatory		- ESTC: 3 - ESTC: 6, 4
Naval Tactics Department	Lectures: Capt. (N) (r) Prof. D.Sc. K. Kolev Lt CDR Assist. Prof. Ph.D. P. Klimov Exercises: Lt CDR Assist. Prof. Ph.D. P. Klimov
Learning Objectives: As a result of attending the course cadets should: KNOW: - the organization of the shipboard service on Navy vessels; - the organization of combat training on Navy vessels; - the methodology for conducting classes in general and special training; -the organization of logistic support in the Navy (only for specialty Organization and management of Navy tactical units– Naval communications Officers and Engineers for the Navy ). BE ABLE TO: - perform general duties of the positions to which they are assigned during the individual training practice on Navy ships; - plan courses of general and special training; - develop plans and synopses for general and special training; - take stock of material resources of weapon and technical means of warships (only for specialty Organization and management of Navy tactical units – Naval communications Officers and Engineers for the Navy ).
Assessment System: At the end of each topic the acquisition of the material is required to be tested regularly. The theoretical issues are checked by means of control questions, and the practical issues - by test. The discipline finishes with a continuous assessment grade at the end of the 4-th semester of study.
Contents:
No.	Subject area (modules)	L	W
1	Fundamentals of the organization of ship order and ship service.	14	1
2	Organization, planning, conducting and reporting on the preparation on Navy vessels. Organization and conducting of special training.	14	1

3	Organization and conducting of general training. Exercises conducted by ship.	14	1
	Total for discipline for specialty Navigation	42	3
4	Organization of defence procurement and Navy logistic support.	14	1
	Total for discipline for specialty Naval communications Officers and Engineers for the Navy	56	4