

ANNOTATION

Military-Political Organizations And Civil-Military Relations		ESTC credits: 2
30 hours, mandatory
Naval Tactics Department	Lectures: Captain (N) Assoc. Prof. Ph. D. Nedko Dimitrov Exercises: Captain (N) Assoc. Prof. Ph. D. Nedko Dimitrov
Learning Objectives: 1. Cadets SHOULD KNOW: - new realities, worldwide, in Europe and on the Balkans, potential risks and threats for the peace and security – evolving missions and tasks of the Bulgarian Armed Forces; - structure, functions and missions of the main military-political organizations worldwide, in Europe and on the Balkans – role and position of the Republic of Bulgaria; - main principles of civil-military relations in peace and war time; 2. Cadets SHOULD BE ABLE TO: - lead their subordinate military personnel during participation in peacekeeping missions and operations abroad; - respect the principles and norms of national and international law; - develop annexes to operational directives (orders).
Evaluation system: 1 test, 9 hours exercises with continuous assessment.
Contents:
No.	Subject area (modules)	Lectures	Exercises
1.	Structures of global international security policy.	4	0
2.	NATO as military-political phenomena.	4	2
3.	Security structures and initiatives in Europe and on the Balkans.	6	2
4.	Civil-military relations in the process of development and implementation of defence policy.	6	6
Total		20	10